No. C 12-1348 WHA (PR)

9
10 DANIEL CARPENTER,

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

11 Plaintiff.

12 _____ /
14 On March 16, 2012, plaintiff, a prisoner of the State of California, filed a letter
15 complaining of conditions at his prison in San Diego County. That day, the clerk
16 notified plaintiff that he had not filed a complaint, and that he had neither paid the filing
17 fee nor filed an application to proceed in forma pauperis (“IFP”). Along with the 18 notices, the clerk mailed to plaintiff the court’s complaint and IFP forms, instructions for 19 completing the forms, and a stamped return envelope. In the notices, plaintiff was 20 informed that the case would be dismissed if he did not file a complaint, and pay the fee
21 or file a completed IFP application, within thirty days. More than thirty days have 22 passed, and no response from plaintiff has been received. Accordingly, this case is 23 DISMISSED without prejudice. The clerk shall enter judgment and close the file.

24
25 IT IS SO ORDERED.

26
27 Dated: April 24, 2012.
